

Henry (Harry) Rawson, b 4 September 1862 in Melbourne

“Mr Henry Rawson, of Lardner, died on Monday morning. He had resided in Gippsland for 70 years. For over 30 years he was underground manager at the Long Tunnel Extended mine, Walhalla, and 25 years ago went to Lardner and commenced farming. His only daughter is Mrs Alex. McFarlane of Lardner. Deceased took a very active part in rifle shooting, and was president of the Warragul Rifle Club for sixteen years. He was also a great lover of cricket.”

The Mrs Alex McFarlane referred to in the obituary is Constance Emily Rawson b 1890 in Walhalla.

From the Morwell Advertiser, Thursday 20 September 1934, via Trove